

Matteus 7: 13-23 (NLV)

1. Die Ysberg-effek
2. God stel nie net belang in jou ore nie...
3. Reguit woorde
4. Niemand is so blind soos hy wat nie wil sien nie...

Trying to see the truth about myself is like trying to see the inside of my own eyeballs (John Ortberg 2010:159).

5. Die belang van self-kennis op my geloofspad

People who know me well can always see these trends in me more easily than I see time in myself. This is why we are often stunned when someone else sees past our defenses into our souls. It is not that they are geniuses. It is just that I am sitting right in my blind spot (JO 2010:157).

6. Dis nie genoeg om te sê ek glo nie

7. Lewe uit die dood

We tend to look for some piece of information, some technique or method of spiritual formation that will take us from where we are to where we want to be with a minimum of inconvenience, pain or suffering. We have so emphasized the Life dimension of the New Testament that we have avoided coming to grips with its death dimension. We have avoided the fact that in the Gospel, Life comes out of death, not out of life. Trying to bring Life out of life attempts to escape the necessity of dying to the old parameters of our existence, the necessity to relinquish the brokenness of our being, the necessity of letting go of those things that warp and misshape and distort who we are. (Robert Mulholland 2008)

8. Omgedop

Elkeen wat die waarheid beoefen, kom na die lig toe sodat dit sigbaar word dat sy dade vanuit 'n noue verhouding met God gedoen is. Johannes 3:21

Deurgroed my, o God, deurgroed my hart, ondersoek my... Ps 139:23
